The committee on Temperance submitted the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The evil of intemperance is the active agent in the destruction of mental, moral, physical and spiritual life, in all their details of applications,

Resolved, That we as a Conference, place ourselves on record as total abstainers and promise by the grace of Almighty God to exert every legitimate effort to prohibit the manufacture, importation and sale of all intoxicating liquors.

JESSE CALNERT,
H. HELEN FRAME,
C. E. DEFFENBAUGH.

The S. S. C. E., through its Secretary, Mrs. Minnie Deffenbaugh reported as follows.

The National S. S. C. E., of the Brethren church met in business session in one of the recitation rooms of the University at 9 A. M.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the President, Laura E. N. Grossnickle.

In the absence of the Secretary, Sarah Cobaugh, Minnie O. Deffenbaugh was elected secretary pro tem.

The President appointed as a committee on Credentials, Clara Neibel, Mrs. H. H. Frame, and Mrs. M. C. Meyers, and their report was as follows:

The constitutional plan for electing the members of the Executive Committee having been found impracticable, it was decided that the delegates present elect Executive Committee, and the election was as follows:

Bessie Perry,	N. Manchester, Ind.
Sarah Keim,	Ashland, Ohio.
Mrs. J. O. Talley,	Illiokota, Milledgeville.
Mrs. M. C. Meyers,	Mt. Pleasant, Pa.
Lizzie Copp,	Strasburg, Md., and Va.
Mrs. J. D. McFaden,	Kanemorado.
Clara Shopbell,	Campbell, Michigan.
Etta R. Harrison,	Lathrop, California.

Article III, Sec. 2, of the Constitution was stricken out and the following amendment was made:

The members of the Executive Committee shall be chosen at the National Convention by the representatives or delegates of the local societies. If any Conference, State or District is not represented the member of the Executive Committee for that State or District shall be appointed by the President.

Upon motion it was decided that the President prepare twelve programs, one for each month of the ensuing year, and have them printed for use in the local societies.

The condition of the church at Marion, Indiana, was presented to the Society, and the advisability of helping them was discussed. The work at Marion properly coming under the head of Mission Work, and the S. S. C. E., being a Missionary Society, it was decided that we help the Marion church to sustain a pastor during the coming year, and that the extent to which we help them be left to the judgment of the Executive Committee.

A letter from the S. S. C. E., at Lanark was read and decided to be printed in the EVANGELIST.

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees asked that the National S. S. C. E., take the responsibility of raising $600 a year for the Theological chair. A motion was made to that effect and lost. After which a motion was made and carried unanimously, that we put forth every possible effort to sustain the Theological chair and concentrate our energies in that direction as much as possible.

The meeting then adjourned with the doxology and benediction.

The Ex. Committee met at the B. H. at 4 P. M. and elected the following officers:

President and Organizer,	Laura E. N. Grossnickle.
Vice President,	Bessie Perry.
Secretary,	Mrs. M. C. Meyers.
Treasurer,	Sarah Keim.

The Executive Committee decided to pay $10 a month out of the funds, S. S. C. E. treasury, sent in for Missionary purposes, towards the support of a pastor for the ensuing year for the church at Marion, Ind.; provided the church at Marion did all in its power to pay their church debt and help support the minister, and that this proposition meet the approbation of the General Conference.

President, Laura Crossnickle.
